- If your child was born in 2023, they can attend 3-K starting in September 2026.
- If your child was born in 2022, they can attend pre-k starting in September 2026.

To learn more about 3-K and pre-k education in New York City, how to locate a program near you, and how to apply, visit our website at schools.nyc.gov/3K and schools.nyc.gov/PreK.

NYC Teenspace

Did you know there are free mental health services available for NYC teenagers? NYC Teenspace is for New Yorkers aged 13–17 who struggle with mental health challenges or want somebody to talk to about their concerns. Connect with a licensed therapist for ongoing support, access online mental health exercises to complete at your own pace, and more. Sign up at nyc.gov/Teenspace to access these services at no cost regardless of school, income level, or insurance status. Our schools also partner with community-based organizations and school-based health centers to provide mental health support to students. Talk to your parent coordinator to learn more about partnerships at your school, as well as support available from school staff such as counselors and social workers.

Climate Action Day

The second NYCPS Climate Action Day for the 2025–26 school year is coming up on Wednesday, February 4! Each Climate Action Day, NYC public school communities engage in activities highlighting climate education and sustainability practices connected to the theme of the day. The theme for February, “Energy,” encourages schools to plan activities throughout the month that teach students and families about energy conservation and renewable energy sources. Visit schools.nyc.gov/ClimateAction to learn more.

Respect for All Week

This year, Respect for All (RFA) Week will be February 9–13, 2026! Throughout the week, schools across the City will highlight and build upon ongoing programs to help students, staff members, and communities gain a better appreciation of one another, regardless of their beliefs or backgrounds. In addition, students will participate in lessons and activities which focus on preventing bullying, intimidation, and bias-based harassment culminating in “National No One Eats Alone Day” on Friday, February 13.

To learn more about Respect for All Week, and to find out more about NYCPS initiatives and resources to combat bullying and harassment, please visit schools.nyc.gov/RespectForAll.
